

Linde Express

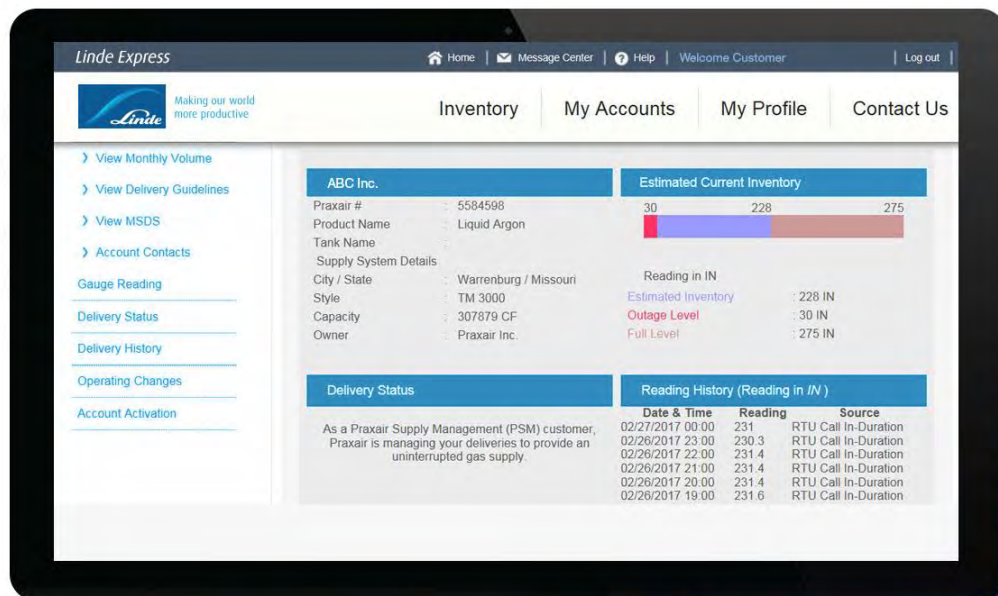

A Web-Based Tool to Manage Your Bulk and Onsite Gas Supply Account

Linde Express is an online web-based service that provides customers the flexibility to view their account at any time. Each department within your organization may access information according to their needs. The accounts payable department can access invoices, the purchasing department can check inventory, the shipping coordinators can view digital delivery documents, and more!

Get Started! As a new member, you will need to self-register by going to www.lindeus.com/express. Please choose Linde Express for Bulk and Onsite and create a username and password. Once you are registered you will have the ability to view your account detail, track orders, and monitor changing activity.
